HOW IT STARTED

When Mr. Frans Lambrecht over thirty years ago saw the tremendous touristic potential of The Red Sea area, he had no idea his dream would grow into what it has become today: one of the hospitality industry’s most dynamic and successful chains. As a Belgian executive in the textile sector in the Middle East, he predicted to his three sons, Didier, Christophe and Pascal that this part of Egypt in time would develop into a new top destination; a vision that soon became reality.

With a Corporate philosophy of supporting the local community and environment, Mr. Frans Lambrecht together with his spouse, Mrs Cecile Lambrecht, encouraged the need for improved standards spanning the areas of tourist behaviour, hospitality marketing, strategic tourism management, as well as hospitality and leisure tourism.

The Three sons were given a clear assignment: “Start your own business!” They opened the very first ice-cream parlour around the Red Sea in December 1987. The success was instant. They rapidly opened a restaurant “Chez Pascal” and a Disco “Cha Cha”; both became extremely popular. The three businesses were merged into one company, referencing the three brothers and thus becoming “The Three Corners”.

In 1989, Frans and Cecile Lambrecht came up with the idea to go into the hotel business. The Three Corners Village in Hurghada started with a capacity of just 78 rooms. Today the Company operates and manages hotels and resorts accounting for more than 2000 rooms spread over 12 hotels within the Egyptian Red Sea Riviera and Budapest, Hungary.
The Three Corners Hotels & Resorts operate and manage hotels and resorts both in Budapest – Hungary and at the Red Sea Riviera – Egypt. From our partners and strategic allies, to every manager and employee at every hotel, we are committed to provide personalized, professional guest service and genuine hospitality at every point of guest contact at all our hotels. “A great hotel is the reflection of its people”: highly trained and motivated employees work together with a clear mandate namely to think and act as “One Big Family”.

El Gouna | The Venice of the Red Sea

El Gouna, located 25 km north of Hurghada, is a quiet and relaxing village nestled between the majestic Red Mountains of the Eastern Desert and the pristine waters of the Red Sea. Interlaced with lagoons, built along 10 km of beachline, El Gouna welcomes visitors all year round to enjoy pleasant temperatures and unparalleled lifestyle. Their architecture is inspired by traditional Egyptian homes in the countryside and upper Egypt. Simultaneously refined and informal, it is a resort where visitors enjoy superb facilities and an endless list of opportunities for adventure and fun. Sportive, chill-out and family vacationers alike will find suitable activities between the dive and kitesurf bases, the 18-hole PGA golf course, the cable slide park, the various Spa’s and wellness centres or the amazing resorts hotels.
Situated around 200 kilometers south of Hurghada, Marsa Alam with its beautiful beaches and its virgin coral reefs has rapidly increased in popularity since the opening of its International Airport. Marsa Alam has a truly tropical feeling, with its twisted mangroves and majestic palm trees and has become one of Egypt’s secret treasures, especially among divers, snorkelers and beach loving sunseekers, looking for a new destination off the beaten track. The panoramas over the crystal water of the Red Sea, the sandy beach under the clear blue sky and the view towards the backdrop of brown mountains that surrounds the place, are beyond imagination.

Hurghada | International Center for Aquatic Sports

Hurghada was once a quiet fishing village, but over the last twenty years, it has become the leading seashore resort on the Red Sea. Holiday villages and hotels provide aquatic sport facilities for sailboarders, yachtsmen, scuba divers and snorkelers, as well as 36 km of pure beaches. Hurghada is world renowned for some of the world’s best diving. Within a couple of hours sailing from your hotel you can be amongst a group of islands hosting dive sites guaranteed to astound even the most experienced divers.
